GOVERNMENT OF THE REPUBLIC OF TRINIDAD AND TOBAGO
PUBLIC STATEMENT OF
THE EQUAL OPPORTUNITY COMMISSION (EOC) IN COMPLIANCE WITH SECTIONS 7, 8, AND 9 OF THE FREEDOM
OF INFORMATION ACT (FOIA) 1999

In accordance with Sections 7, 8, and 9 of the Freedom of Information Act Chapter. 22:02 ('FOIA') the Equal Opportunity Commission (hereinafter referred to as the 'Commission') being a Public Authority is required by law to publish the following statements, which list the documents and information generally available to the public.

The FOIA gives members of the public:

1. A legal right for each person to access information held by the Commission;
2. A legal right for each person to have information relating to himself/herself amended where it is held by the Commission and such information is incomplete, incorrect or misleading;
3. A legal right to obtain reasons for adverse decisions made regarding an applicant's request for information under the FOIA;
4. A legal right to complain to the Ombudsman and to apply to the High Court for judicial review to challenge adverse decisions made under the FOIA.

SECTION 7 STATEMENTS

SECTION 7 (1) (a) (i): FUNCTION AND STRUCTURE OF THE PUBLIC AUTHORITY

Establishment of the Equal Opportunity Commission

The Commission was established by section 26 (1) of the Equal Opportunity Act, Chapter 22:03 ('the Act') [Act No 69 of 2000 as amended] for the purpose of exercising the jurisdiction conferred upon it by that Act. The Commission commenced operations in April 2008 with the appointment of its first Commissioners.

Functions of the Commission

The functions of the Commission are set out in section 27 (1) of the Act as follows:

- a) to work towards the elimination of discrimination;
- b) to promote equality of opportunity and good relations between persons of different status;
- c) to keep under review the working of the Act and any relevant law and when so required by the Minister, or where necessary draw up and submit to the Minister proposal for amending them;
- d) to receive, investigate and as far as possible, conciliate allegations of discrimination;
- e) to develop, conduct and foster research and education programmes and other programmes for the purpose of eliminating discrimination and promoting equality of opportunity and good relations between persons of different status;

- f) to prepare and publish appropriate guidelines for the avoidance of discrimination;
- g) to do any other thing conducive or incidental to the carrying out of its functions.

Vision Statement

A society which is free from discrimination and prejudice, where human rights and diversity are respected, and where there is equality of opportunity for all.

Mission Statement

The Equal Opportunity Commission works towards the elimination of discrimination and the promotion of equality of opportunity through advocacy, public education, research and the conciliation of complaints.

The Commission comprises five (5) Commissioners including a Chairman and a Vice-Chairman. Currently these are:

1. Mr. Hugh Russell Ian Roach - Chairman
2. Dr. Gabrielle Hosein - Vice Chairman
3. Mr. Peter Elias - Commissioner
4. Mr. John Arnold - Commissioner

ORGANISATIONAL CHART OF THE EQUAL OPPORTUNITY COMMISSION

The Commission is located at # 55-57 Manic Street, Chaguanas, 500621 and comprises the following units which report to the Chief Executive Officer (hereinafter referred to as the 'CEO'):

- Legal
- Communications
- General Administration
- Information and Communication Technology
- Conciliation/Mediation and
- Research

The Office of the CEO

The CEO is responsible for planning, organizing, coordinating activities and resources for all the operational functions of the Commission.

Legal

This Unit is responsible for executing the Commission's statutory function of receiving and investigating complaints of discrimination that are lodged by members of the public.

PUBLIC STATEMENT OF THE EQUAL OPPORTUNITY COMMISSION (EOC)—CONTINUED

SECTION 7(1) (a) (iv)
LITERATURE AVAILABLE BY SUBSCRIPTION

The Commission has no literature available by subscription at this time.

SECTION 7(1) (a) (v)
PROCEDURE TO BE FOLLOWED WHEN ACCESSING A DOCUMENT FROM THE COMMISSION

General Procedure

The Policy of the Commission is to answer all requests, both or a land written, for information. However, to give effect to the applicant's rights under the FOIA (for example the right to challenge a decision if a request for information is refused), the request must first be made in writing. An applicant must therefore complete the appropriate form (Request for Access to Official Documents) available at the Commission's Reception Desk or from its Designated FOI Officer, for information that is not readily available in the public domain.

Details in Request

Applicants should provide details that will allow for prompt identification and location of the records that are being requested. If insufficient information is provided, clarification will be sought by the Commission from the applicant.

REQUESTS NOT HANDLED UNDER THE FOIA

An applicant who is uncertain how to write a request or what details to include in such a request may make enquiries with the Designated Officer.

HOW THE COMMISSION RESPONDS TO THE APPLICANT'S REQUESTS

A request under FOIA will not be processed to the extent that it seeks information that is readily available to the public, either from the Commission or from another public authority, for example brochures, pamphlets, leaflets, reports etc.

Responding to Requests

The Commission is required to furnish copies of documents only when they are in the Commission's possession or they can be retrieved from storage. The Commission is required to furnish only one copy of a document. If the Commission cannot make a legible copy of the document to be released, it will not attempt to reconstruct it. Instead the Commission will furnish the best copy possible and note its quality in our reply.

Please note the Commission is not compelled to do the following:

- Create new documents, or
- Perform research for an applicant.

Time Limits

The FOIA gives a stipulated time frame of thirty (30) days for the Commission to determine whether or not it is able to disclose or refuse access to the documents requested by the applicant (but this period may be extended where there is consultation between the applicant and the Designated Officer).

Should the Commission fail to meet this deadline, the FOIA gives the applicant the right to proceed as though the applicant's request had been denied. Every effort will be made to comply with the time limit. If it appears that processing the request may take longer than the statutory limit, the Commission will acknowledge the request and advise the applicant of its status. Since there is the possibility that requests may be incorrectly addressed or misdirected, the applicant may wish to call or write to confirm that the Commission has received the request and to ascertain its status.

Fees and Charges

Section 17 (1) of the FOIA stipulates that no fee shall be charged by a public authority for the making of a request for access to an official document.

However, where access to an official document is to be given in the form of printed copies or copies in some other form, such as a tape, disk, film or other material, the applicant will be required to pay the prescribed fee incurred for duplication of the said material.

SECTION 7(1) (a) (vi)

Officers of the Commission are responsible for: the initial receipt of and action upon notices under section 10 of the FOIA; requests for access to documents under section 13 of the FOIA; and applications for correction of personal information under section 36 of the FOIA.

1. The initial receipt of and action upon notices under section 10 of the FOIA
2. Requests for access to documents under Section 13 of the FOIA AND
3. Applications for corrections of personal information under Section 36 of the FOIA.
